

An Energy Usage Guarantee on Your New Home in Jacksonville?

Yes!

A new David Weekley EnergySaver™ home in Jacksonville is backed by the Environments For Living® Gold Level Program, guaranteeing your home's heating and cooling energy use.

Environments For Living provides a rigorous set of requirements for home builders based on construction science, resulting in a home that offers energy efficiency, indoor environmental quality and durability benefits.

When you close on your new David Weekley EnergySaver home, you will receive a certificate from Environments For Living indicating the average yearly maximum energy usage for heating and air conditioning (only), which is guaranteed!

Energy efficiency that's guaranteed...

There's never been a better time to buy an EnergySaver home!
